TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

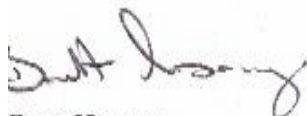

The McNaught Group has been painting our company's homes for the last 10 years. They have painted approximately 30 homes per year and have always employed quality competent tradesman who conduct themselves in a most professional manner.

Many of our homes are architectural designed with features that require special attention from our painters. The McNaught Group has always offered that little extra in providing that exceptional finish that enables clients to be proud of their dream home.

The service they provide to our clients in assisting them with colours and finishes is second to none. Our clients have often commented on the high level of service that the McNaught Group have provided.

The McNaught Group are a most valuable asset to our company and we look forward to a continued and long association with them.
